

All Officers

July

- Attend district-sponsored Club Officer Training if you did not attend in June.
- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Review last year's Distinguished Club Program (DCP) results for your club.
- Establish the club's goals for the current year's Distinguished Club Program.
- Read the relevant sections in the Club Leadership Handbook.
- Review the Product Guide and order educational materials.

August

- Attend District-sponsored Club Officer Training if you did not attend in June or July.
- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Review the club's goals for the current year Distinguished Club Program.

September

- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Review the club's goals for the current year Distinguished Club Program.

October

- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Review the club's goals for the current year Distinguished Club Program.

November

- If your club elects officers semiannually, conduct club officer elections.
- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Review the club's goals for the current year Distinguished Club Program.

December

- Attend district-sponsored Club Officer Training. Note that officers must attend both training cycles for DCP credit whether the club elects annually or semiannually or had also attended training in the June-August period.

- If your club elects semiannually, current officers meet with incoming officers to help prepare them for their roles.
- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Review the club's goals for the current year Distinguished Club Program.

January

- Attend district-sponsored Club Officer Training if you did not attend in December.
- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Review current year's Distinguished Club Program results for your club.
- Review the Product Guide and order educational materials.
- Read the relevant sections in the Club Leadership Handbook.

February

- Attend District-sponsored Club Officer Training if you did not attend in December or January. This is the last opportunity as training ends in February.
- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Conduct the Speech Contests to qualify members for the Area Contest.
- Review the club's goals for the current year Distinguished Club Program.

March

- Promote Area Speech Contests and encourage all members to attend in support of club's contestants.
- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Review the club's goals for the current year Distinguished Club Program.

April

- Promote Division Speech Contests and encourage all members to attend in support of Area's contestants.
- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Review the club's goals for the current year Distinguished Club Program.

May

- Conduct club officer elections.

- Promote District Annual Conference.
- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Review the club's goals for the current year Distinguished Club Program.

June

- Incoming officers attend District-sponsored Club Officer Training.
- Current officers meet with incoming officers to help prepare them for their roles.
- Conduct executive committee meeting with each officer reporting on activities/accomplishments/plans.
- Review the club's goals for the current year Distinguished Club Program. Ensure that all completed educational awards and new member applications have been credited with Toastmasters International.